

Colorado Springs, CO Chapter Article for Officer Review Magazine

TITLE: Army Space Brigade Presentation

The Colorado Springs (COS), Colorado Chapter of MOWW held its monthly chapter meeting on 29 April 2023. The Chapter was pleased to welcome Colonel Dave Brooks, Commander, 1st Space Brigade, U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command. COL Brooks is a 1999 graduate of the United States Military Academy (USMA), was commissioned in the Field Artillery (FA), and served combat tours in Operation Desert Spring and Operation Iraqi Freedom I, III, and V. COL Brooks transitioned from FA to Space Operations Officer in 2008. He commanded the 1st Space Battalion at Fort Carson, Colorado then established USSPACECOM's Joint Integrated Space Teams at both USSOCOM and USCENTCOM prior to assuming Command of the 1st Space Brigade. He provided an informative presentation on Army Space Operations, current and future. COL Brooks is currently transitioning to become the Commandant of the Army Space initiative which will establish professional development training and education for Army Space officers and Noncommissioned Officers.

COL Shambach (right) presents COL Brooks (left) with a COS MOWW Certificate of Appreciation