

Colorado Springs, CO Chapter Article for Officer Review Magazine

TITLE: Lt Gen Miller provides a Perspective on the wars in Ukraine and Gaza

The Colorado Springs (COS), Colorado Chapter of MOWW was pleased to welcome Lt Gen Chris Miller, USAF (Ret) as guest speaker at our 20 January 2023 membership meeting. Lt Gen Miller currently serves in the Air Force Academy's Center for Character & Leadership Development as the Helen and Arthur E. Johnson Chair for the Study of the Profession of Arms. In this capacity, he is exploring the impact of increasingly complex missions and newly contested domains on the nature and cohesion of the military profession, its boundaries and its relationship with civil society. He provided an in-depth look at the lessons learned from both the Ukraine conflict and the Israel/Hamas war along with an analysis of their effects on the prosecution of war on today's modern battlefields. During his 33 year military career as a strategic bomber pilot and Air Force commander at all levels, he has developed a unique perspective on global conflicts. His most recent assignments in uniform were spent developing the plans, policy, and strategy for U.S. Northern Command & NORAD and serving as the Air Force's deputy chief of staff for strategic plans and programs, leading the Air Force's multi-billion dollar, five-year program formulation and longer-range planning efforts.

Lt Gen Chris Miller (left) receives a COS MOWW Letter of Appreciation from Col Jim Borders, COS MOWW Sr. Vice President